

Savings Potential When Air-Row Fans Augment Anti-Sweat Controls

When Air-Row fans are used in conjunction with anti-condensate controllers, the run time on the anti-condensate heaters can be reduced up to 75% when compared to heaters without controls that run continuously.

The above run time percentages were based on a typical supermarket in the Northeast. The heaters only ran 73% of the time for the year!